NOTES.FROM TONQUIN AND ANNAM

-Hanor,-16th-October. To-day the Tonquin river mail service com mences. In connection with this event the members of the Hanoi Chamber of Commerce. desirous of testifying their gratitude to M. Paul Bert, the Resident-General, for his constant efforts for the development of the commerce and industry of Tonquin, have decided to offer him a banquet, which will take place this evening. All the merchants traders, and colonists in general at Hanoi have united with the members of the Chamber of Commerce to testify by their presence to the esteem in which they hold the Resident-General. 97.

To secure the much needed rain His Excellency the Kinh-luoc of Tonquin ordered public prayers on Sunday last. These prayers were offered in all the temples. and were attended with processions of great pomp. We have observed with much pleasure that Heaven has heard the prayers of the Tonquiness. On Tuesday night a violent storm broke over our town and its environs, and torrants of rain fell on the thirsty rice fields. This storm, the precursor of the change of the monsoon, brought a continuous rain, which has lasted already for two days, to the great satisfaction of the rural population and the man-

To-morrow there are to be public rejoicings, decorations, and illuminations at Hanoi in honour of His Excellency the Kinh-luon, on whom the THE FATALITY IN A CARGO BOA! President of the Republic has conferred the high mark of distinction of Commander of the Legion of Honour. Every one here knows the numerous cause of the Protectorate, and we hope to see the French population add spontaneously to the official rejoicings.

A public garden is to be established at Hanoi, which for the present will serve also as an experimental garden until the projected large experimental garden can be laid out on the bank of the Great Lake. The public garden of which we speak will be situated to the north of the concession in the space formed by the river to the east, Concession-road to the north, the dike on the west, and a small canal on the north. > There is a prospect of another boundary question arising in Central Asia. It is in regard to the point where the Afghan, Chinese, and Russian boundaries meet, niz., Koshet. The question was raised by the Russian Government some time ago, according to the Novoe Vremua. According to the agreement arrived at in 1872 between Prince Gortschakoff and Lord Granville this khanate was acknowledged as belonging to Badakhshan, which in its turn is dependent on Afghanistan, Meanwhile, the Persian newspaper, the Fars, has announced that the Council of Elders of the capital of Wakhan recently sent off a deputation to Turkestan to propose to the Russian Governor-General the conditions upon which they would consent to acknowledge the suzerainty of Russia.

> Lieutenant Frederick Schwatka, the commander of the expedition for the exploration of Alaska, writing concerning the cluster of mountains on the southern spurs of the St. Glais Alpa, says :- " Here, within an area of one of our smallest States, is a group of Alpine peaks that will rival all those of Switzerland put together over and over again, and yet hardly one hundred of our most intelligent citizens has heard of them. One of them, Crilion, is lo than any peak in the United States proper, yet it would not be recognised by one perso a thousand if casually spoken of among the home." Under the shadow of eternal su-Lieutepant Schwatka found strawberries great abundance, and golden plover were k in large numbers by the explorers. Gri bears, with the finest coatsof hair of that spec were also found upon the mountains.

> Up to the present time the Germans have achieved any striking success in their effor Germanize the inhabitants of Alsace-Lorre What results time may reserve for them cannot say; but the task of the conquerors certainly be rendered easier by the death. I nanounced, of Mons. Dupout des Loges, Bis of Metz. The deceased prelate, who has the bishopric since 1842, was a stanch Free man; his appearance in coclesiastical costum the German Parliament among the little b of Alsatians and Lorrainers, who form the testing party against the Garman domina used to cause considerable annoyance to majority of the members of that assembly. That a new generation should accept the existing state of things is highly to be desired; but one cannot refuse one's admiration to the older men who have hoped against hope and are going down to the grave true to the old love to the end. And France has had no truer lover than the late Bishop of Metz.

shows that considerable impatus has been given to the trade with the various ports on the North East African coast. The presence of the Italians at Massowah has acted as a stimulus to the trade with Abyssinia, and an appreciable increase is reported in some of the principal growing importance of Aden as a centre for the trade of East Africa and Arabia. This increase Mr. Byramjee Jeejeebboy, C.S.I., has offered is partly attributable to the removal of quaranaccount of his late grandfather. Mr. Merwanjee | Notwithstanding the coal companies paying all the port expenses of steamers which called at Aden for fuel, no improvement is reported in that branch of trade during the year. It is sup therly sovereign. The ladies of Teheran recently posed that this is largely due to the low freights sent a deputation to him to complain of the cafes which have ruled obliging shipowners to utilise all their bunker and some of their cargo space for the storage of coal for the voyage out to the east and even back to Port Said. Some of the steamers, it appears, now take Indian coal at Bombay, and according to the report under review, it answers fairly well when mixed with a small proportion of Welsh coal Australian coal & is also largely consumed, and we are told that owing to its very small cost it is often carried of 1886 are suggestive.
